INSPECTION OF TOWN BUILDINGS

VALLEY FALLS AND CAMP NEWHOCA

PERFORMED BY THE PERMANENT MUNICIPAL BUILDING COMMITTEE

AUGUST 27, 2019

VALLEY FALLS:

1. Reconstruction of the dam has been completed. Fencing was installed to enhance public safety. There is improved access to the trails and an ADA accessible fishing platform. A formal ribbon-cutting is being planned.
2. The buildings continue to be beautiful and well maintained.
3. The parking lots have been paved.

BARN:

1. A bathroom was installed on the lower level of the barn – it is ADA compliant.
2. There is a new well and septic, and a parking area was also built.

CAMP NEWHOCA:

1. The outside ramp for the pavilion continues to age. Plans are being put in place to repair it.
2. Maintenance and repairs are being addressed in a timely fashion. Everything continues to look great!
3. There are new signs going into the camp. Driveways were repaved and some buildings were painted.
4. Doors were replaced on the bath house at the beach. 120 children attended camp this summer. The bath house is constantly being used.
